FEDERAL MP PANEL

Elizabeth May

Leader, Green Party of Canada

Elizabeth May is an environmentalist, writer, activist, lawyer, and leader of the Green Party of Canada. Elizabeth became active in the environmental movement in the 1970s. She held the position of Associate General Counsel for the Public Interest

Advocacy Centre prior to becoming Senior Policy Advisor to the federal minister of the Environment from 1986 until 1988. In the 2011 Election, Elizabeth made history by being the first Canadian Green Party candidate to be elected to the House of Commons. She now represents the riding of Saanich-Gulf Islands.

James Moore

Minister of Industry

James Moore is the 5-term Conservative member of parliament for Port Moody-Westwood-Port Coquitlam, first elected in 2000 as BC's youngest elected MP at the age of 24. He has held various Cabinet positions including Minister of State for the 2010 Olympics, the Asia-Pacific Gateway, Heritage & Official Languages.

He studied Economics and Business Administration at Douglas College. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Politics from the University of Northern BC and a Masters of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Saskatchewan.

Kennedy Stewart

Official Opposition Critic for Science & Technology

First elected in 2011, Kennedy Stewart represents the constituents of Burnaby-Douglas as their NDP member of parliament. In April 2012, he was named to the Official Opposition Shadow Cabinet as the Critic for Science and Technology.

He has a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Acadia University, holds a Master's degree in Political Science at Simon Fraser University and a PhD in Government from the London School of Economics. He is currently on leave from SFU's School of Public Policy where he is a tenured associate professor.
